Benilde Hall's Veteran Wing Expansion Ribbon Cutting Ceremony: Honoring Those Who Served

We want to thank everyone who joined us for Benilde Hall's Veteran Wing Expansion Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, where we celebrated the completion of our Veteran Wing Expansion, alongside the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce.

This expansion would not have been possible without financial support from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, the Sunderland Foundation, Reed Automotive Group, Veterans United Foundation, and Stay Zero LE MC - Kansas City. We also want to thank Lytle Construction, Inc. for bringing this project to life with their exceptional craftsmanship.

With the addition of eight new rooms, each equipped with its own bathroom, we now have additional capacity to house Veterans in our Grant and Per Diem program. Having a private room will give these Veterans their own place to rest and recharge as they work towards their recovery, secure permanent housing, and establish consistent income.

A heartfelt thank you goes to our lunch sponsors, Operation BBQ Relief, Price Chopper, and Crumbl Cookies, for providing a delicious lunch.

As we enter into Military Appreciation Month in May, we reaffirm our unwavering commitment to honoring and supporting our military community in every endeavor.

Client Highlights

Bridge Hill Eye generously provided complimentary eye exams and glasses to clients at Benilde Hall, all thanks to vouchers from Access KC. We're immensely grateful to both organizations for their support in meeting our clients' health needs.

Additionally, on April 8th, our clients and staff enjoyed a day outdoors, witnessing the solar eclipse and participating in outdoor groups before and after the eclipse. A special thank you goes out to a friend of Benilde Hall for their generous donation of solar eclipse glasses!
