Mark your calendars for Benilde Hall's 30 Year Celebration Luncheon on Friday,

September 8th at the Rumely Tractor Historic Event Space in Kansas City's West Bottoms.

We are excited to announce John Holt of FOX4 News as our event emcee, and veteran MLB first baseman and American League Champion Willie Aikens as our guest speaker. Willie Aikens played for the Kansas City Royals from 1980-1983, during his eight-year career in Major League Baseball. His substance use led to his arrest in 1994, resulting in 14 years in prison. After his release, Willie co-wrote the book "Safe at Home" with Gregory Jordan, sharing his life story and inspiring recovery journey. "Safe at Home" was adapted into the film "The Royal" in 2022. Currently, Willie is the minor league hitting coach for the Royals and provides guidance based on his life experiences to the team's prospects.
